

Steelhead Diner

Location: Seattle, Washington

Completion: 2007

Capacity: Seats 150

Photographer: Kathryn Barnard

Located in the heart of the Pike Place Market the diner is a modern version of the classic diner. Serving market fresh produce and northwest fare the Steelhead diner is a casual vibrant addition to the neighborhood. The open kitchen and robust design captures the vitality of the Pike Place neighborhood. Formerly a string of unsuccessful restaurants the diner continues to prosper and receive stellar reviews.

Work completed in collaboration with an UrbanMix.